

Robin Flower's Once-A-Month Stringband

Are you looking for a quality musical experience lead by an accomplished and talented teacher/performing artist?

This may well be the group for you. All instrumental players are encouraged to join Robin Flower's Once (or Twice)-a-Month Stringband, an established student band. Learn, play and perform Irish, Old-time, and Swing music in a fun, focused and supportive group with like minded players and singers. With reels, jigs, waltzes, and swing tunes, you will learn to groove, bounce, lilt, swing, and drive! You will have chances to solo and sing. Learn how to participate in the creative musical process. Music and chords will be provided. All levels are encouraged to join!

Winter Season 2008 Dates

Sundays, 12:45-3:00pm

January 27th

February 17th

March 16th

Cost - $75, non refundable, for all three dates

Sessions are held at Robin's house, 3818 Linwood Avenue in the Glenview district of Oakland. For directions / info call Robin at 510.482.9479 or email her at flower2mcl@earthlink.net

The Once (or Twice)-a-Month Stringband is led by Robin Flower, well-known fiddle, guitar, and mandolin player, teacher, workshop leader and music camp instructor. Robin is a composer, singer/songwriter and recording artist. Check out her website at www.flowerandmclaren.com.

Robin is on the board of Berkeley's Freight and Salvage Coffeehouse.
