

FALL HARMONY WORKSHOPS REGISTER NOW!

It's time for you to register for the next Harmony Singing workshops that Celia Ramsay and I are offering this fall:

- Intro to Harmony Singing: Using simple rounds and songs, Celia and I help you become accustomed to singing something different than the others you're singing with. This class is the first step to learning to sing harmony!
- Intermediate Harmony Singing: In this class, Celia and I will teach you one delicious song, which will act as the model for more detail on what is operating with harmony. This is a good choice if you have experience singing in a chorus, but haven't sung for some years.
- Advanced Harmony Singing: The advanced workshop is for folks who are competent at singing harmony when it's provided, but want to learn how to find their own harmonies - either on the fly, or by planning ahead, and how to rehearse harmonies with a band.

DATES FOR WORKSHOPS: Intro to Harmony - September 22, Intermediate Harmony - October 6, Advanced Harmony - October 20. All are Saturdays, all are from 2:00 - 4:00pm in North Berkeley, and all cost $75 per person, per workshop. These intimate workshops are for 8 - 12 people, and you get two full lifetimes of singing experience at your service!

WORKSHOP REGISTRATION

DO YOU WISH OUR WORKSHOPS WERE CLOSER TO YOU?

If there are 8 - 12 students who would like to learn harmony singing and can offer a living room, church, or community center for two or three hours, Libby and I will bring the workshop to you! Find out how!
